2017 & 2018
18-MONTH INTERFAITH CALENDAR
DID YOU KNOW?
THE ST. LOUIS COMMUNITY CELEBRATES HUNDREDS OF DIFFERENT RELIGIOUS HOLIDAYS.

Diversity Awareness Partnership’s Interfaith Calendar is distributed annually and features observances celebrated across 26 religious traditions. Take one with you to meetings, keep it in your office, bring it to your class, or just have it handy at home. Please use this calendar as a guide to better understand, acknowledge, and respect friends’, neighbors’, employees’ and co-workers’ holidays.

To be more accommodating, please consider the following:

FOOD
Halal and Kosher restrictions may apply. Consider vegetarian, non-alcoholic, and non-caffeinated options. During some holidays, individuals will be fasting.

HOURS
Consider allowing flexibility in work/school hours, as some holidays may require individuals to attend their place of worship during the day.

ABSENCE
Some individuals may request to use vacation or personal days for holidays that are not recognized as company or school-wide days off.

DEADLINES
Consider allowing flexibility for deadlines around important holidays, as some individuals may be participating in celebrations or fasting, which could cause decreased stamina.

PRAYER
Consider designating a space for employees or students to pray, as some holidays may require increased prayer throughout the day/evening.

NOTES:
This calendar aims to be as inclusive as possible. Please contact us if you would like the 2018 Interfaith Calendar to include a holiday that is not currently listed.

All content in this calendar is based on information available at the time of production. To the greatest extent possible, holidays based on lunar phases or other variables that change yearly have been factored into observance dates. The spelling of certain observances may vary as well.

The length of some holidays and the extent to which they are observed may vary according to denominational affiliations or regions.

All Baha’i, Jewish and Muslim holidays begin at sunset the previous day.

We encourage all places of worship to be accessible to persons with disabilities by making necessary accommodations. Contact DAP for additional information.

WORLD DAY FOR CULTURAL DIVERSITY FOR DIALOGUE & DEVELOPMENT

In 2001, UNESCO adopted the Universal Declaration on Cultural Diversity and in December 2002, the UN General Assembly declared May 21 to be the World Day for Cultural Diversity for Dialogue and Development. The day provides us with an opportunity to deepen our understanding of the values of cultural diversity. People around the world celebrate this day by joining the campaign “Do One Thing for Diversity and Inclusion” which aims to: raise awareness worldwide about the importance of intercultural dialogue, diversity and inclusion; build a world community of individuals committed to support diversity with real and everyday-life gestures; combat polarization and stereotypes to improve understanding and cooperation among people from different cultures.
BUDDHISM

Buddhism is a religion to about 300 million people around the world. The word comes from ‘budhi’, ‘to awaken’. It has its origins about 2,500 years ago when Siddhartha Gotama, known as the Buddha, was himself awakened (enlightened) at the age of 35. There are many different types of Buddhism, because the emphasis changes from country to country due to customs and culture. However, the essence of all Buddhist teaching is the Four Noble Truths: 1) Suffering exists 2) Suffering arises from attachment to desires 3) Suffering ceases when attachment to desires cease 4) Freedom from suffering is possible by practicing the eightfold path. The Eightfold Path includes: right view, right thought, right speech, right action, right livelihood, right effort, right mindfulness, right contemplation.

Prominent themes in Hindu beliefs include (but are not restricted to) Dharma (ethics /duties), Samsara (the continuing cycle of birth, life, death and rebirth), Karma (action, intent and consequences), Moksha (liberation from samsara or liberation in this life), and the various Yogas (paths or practices).

The will of God is made known through the Qur’an (the Koran), revealed to his messenger Muhammad. Muhammad, it is claimed was the last of the great prophets which included Adam, Noah, Moses, Jesus and others. The basic belief of Islam is expressed in the shahadah, the Muslim confession of faith, “There is no god but God; Muhammad is the prophet of God.”
