

Fifteen faith groups and three mental health organizations created Pathways in 1988. The organizations listed below continue to work with Pathways in developing caring ministries with people with mental illnesses and their families.

American Baptist Churches USA
American Association of Professional Chaplains
Central Conference of American Rabbis
Christian Association for Psychological Studies
Christian Reformed Church in North America
Church of the Brethren
Episcopal Church
Evangelical Lutheran Church in North America
FaithNet NAMI
International Conference of War Veteran Ministers
Lutheran Church Missouri Synod
Mennonite Central Committee
National Alliance on Mental Illness
National Catholic Office for Persons with Disabilities
Presbyterian Church USA
Rabbinical Assembly
Roman Catholic Church
Union for Reform Judaism
United Church of Christ
United Methodist Church General Board of Church and Society
United Methodist Church General Board of Global Ministries
Unitarian Universalist Mental Health Caucus

314-810-2234
www.pathways2promise.org
info@pathways2promise.org

Pathways To Promise

Incorporated since 1988

Bridging Faith, Culture and Mental Health

Pathway's Mission

Pathways to Promise is an interfaith cooperative of many faith groups that provides resources and training for faith organizations addressing mental health.

Pathway's Goals

- Enable faith communities to become leaders in reaching out to people with mental illnesses and their families.
- Promote full inclusion of people who have mental illnesses and their families, partnering with them for mutual and interactive participation in their faith communities and the community at large.
- Catalyze action in faith communities that enhances the quality of life for those challenged by mental illnesses.
- Organize interfaith mental health training collaboratives that bring together Clergy and faith leaders, NAMI affiliates, behavioral health and pastoral counseling service providers, and persons in the consumer/ peer/ recovery community.

PATHWAYS is committed to creating an atmosphere in the faith and mental health communities that promotes recovery from mental illness and invites people with mental illnesses to enrich the community through actively sharing their gifts and interests.

What we offer

- Consultation and training on how to organize a training collaborative in your area.
- Program models and training curricula for faith community mental health ministry and program development.
- Resourcing for faith leaders and faith communities including helping you find brochures, bulletin inserts, worship resources, pamphlets, booklets manuals, videos, and other sources of information and support geared to your faith tradition.
- Our website is available has resources for faith leaders and lay leaders, persons with mental illnesses and their family, friends, and supporters as well as behavioral health professionals interested in working with faith communities.

Our Team

Rev. Jermine Alberty, Lead Consultant
Robert Skrocki, Board Chair
Jim Zahniser, Senior Advisor
Rev. Robert Dell, Senior Advisor
Rev. Craig Rennebohm, Senior Advisor
Rev. Cindy Holtrop, Content Editor
Dawn Pennington, Program Associate

Consider supporting Pathways to Promise

We invite you to support Pathways by becoming a member, a friend or giving in honor of someone. Your support enables us to continue our work with the faith community to raise awareness about mental illness, and develop groups that are supportive of people and families struggling with this disease.

Membership Levels

Individual $25
Congregation $50
Other Local Group/ Agency $50
Regional Body/ Organization Chapter $150
National Religious Body $500
Other National Organization/ Agency $500

A Friend of Pathways may not want to become a member but desires to support the work of Pathways. We encourage you to give a donation of any amount.

Honoring the memory of someone can be another way to give a contribution to Pathways.

Please make your contribution by visiting www.pathways2promise.org and click the donation button on the home page or become a member link. If you desire to pay by check, please reach out Pathways by emailing us at info@pathways2promise.org.

All contributions are tax deductible.